

Your Donations Made the Difference

Thank you so much for your donations during this difficult time as we recover from the flash flood of July 10, 2026.

Here's how you helped us recover-
We spent:

$29,509

Flood recovery and cleanup, including bulldozer and Bobcat work and landscaping.

$6,411

Delson's Medical Bills

$3,029

Ven. Bhante Kusala's medical bills - many covered by insurance

$8,800

Replaced Kawasaki Mule with new ATV

Total Flood Recovery Expenses to Date

$47,749

Meditation Retreats are back on and 2027 retreats are open.

Planning a new Meditation Garden. The area destroyed will be replaced with a garden which will encourage deep sits and meditative walks. One concept pictured.

Kirsten, Rose, Jerry, Doug, and I (David) are deeply grateful for your generous support during this difficult time. Your donations have helped us recover from the flood and get Dhamma Sukha back on its feet.

Every dollar used for flood recovery has gone directly toward recovery expenses, with nothing deducted for administrative costs. Any remaining funds will help support the 2027 meditation season.

We are happy to announce that meditation retreats are back on, and registration for our 2027 retreats is now open

Coming up: Winter Zoom Retreats

Our winter Zoom retreats are intensive 9-day meditation retreats with daily personal interviews.

Participants must have previously completed at least one online or in-person meditation retreat.
